DON'T

THE

CAT

Regalo mio !

Preposterous clown tornado about a present a tiny bit too pretty

"Is life a gift ? Is the gift the present ? Is the present for me ? Really ? Why ? Why me ? What about you ? Do you love me ? The question may well be asked..."

Influenced by the body poetry of Jacques Tati, grown with the flamboyant images by Federico Fellini, full of the monumental energy of carnival, we aim at spreading with this show a powerful breath of joy and energy !

Mixed biography

Benjamin Balthazar Lebigre is Franco-Italian. Catherine Richon is Franco-French, with some time of her life spent in England (Manchester) and Germany (Frankfurt).

He is born in the carnival, she fell for the theater when she was little. He likes shows full of powerful energy, so does she. They met in 2016 and immediately and deeply connected. Since then, they have been performing as soon as it is possible. They re-invent everything every time, or they prepare everything very carefully - like this Regalo mio ! For the joke, they endorsed a name that sounds like one of a rock band: DON'T FEED THE CAT - in English

Sometimes, Catherine write scripts, sometimes Benjamin builds polar bears in paper mâché in Greenland or he leads immense carnival parades in Viareggio (Italy). More often than not, they meet and clown together. They live in Paris or in Italy or elsewhere. The two of them speak five languages between themselves but the language they always agree on is that of the stage frenzy of clowning.
